Drawing influence from the blossoming disco and soul scene, George and Glen added Caribbean flavour to the New York sound to startling effect. When her father dies, leaving her orphaned, she flees the constraints of her religious uncle's household and lives rough and wild, hunting and fighting in the great forest. When Gloria decides to create an army to assassinate Madden, leadership, love, and revenge will do more than test their friendship - it could break. We argue that insight into the nature of tradition --in particular its dynamic interplay with culture in the formation of identity-- allows participants to develop some useful language that supports more effective reflective practice in collaboration.
